#SAWC 17 Ceremony!

Awards & recognition for the #SAWC17 ambassadors!

When: Nov 17, 2017 at 10:00 a.m.

Where: Lethbridge City Hall Foyer

Details: TBA

When we think of agriculture in Southern Alberta, perhaps huge farms out east come to mind with sophisticated irrigation pivots and loads of potatoes or corn. Here's what two dedicated watershed stewards are doing on the Blood Reserve to rehabilitate some of their agricultural land. William Singer III and Lori Brave Rock are signatories of the Southern Alberta Water Charter #SAWC17. The closing ceremony is coming up on November 17th - who will be getting completion awards?

NO GMO IN YOUR POTATO?!

August 29, 2017

Southern Alberta depends on irrigation and we withdraw loads of water from the Oldman for agriculture. Agriculture provides 80% of our economy! ....But is the water going to Frankenpotatoes?!

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

August 28, 2017

Whatever our preferred form of recreation, it's up to everyone to Know Before You Go. Keep an eye out for these signs - please respect and obey them, so that we can keep our backcountry beautiful and healthy!
